

FACULTY SURVEY FOR THE NEW LIBRARY BUILDING

October, 1996

We would like to know what you think a new library building should be for IWU. Please assist us by filling out this survey and returning it to Sue Stroyan, Sheean Library, no later than 16 October

1. My idea or concept of an ideal library is (finish the statement by naming or identifying three things)

Rank questions 2-6 in order of importance (one being most important)

2. The new library atmosphere should be a:
 - a place for quiet reflection
 - a representation of the intellectual heart of IWU
 - a place for personal interaction
 - a high-tech marketplace for information retrieval
 - a study lounge
3. Besides space for the library collection, my top priorities are:
 - a place for individual study
 - a place for group study
 - a place for new library technologies
 - a meeting rooms
 - a public presentation space
 - a coffee bar
4. I expect to find on the first floor of the library:
 - current periodicals
 - reference resources
 - book collection
 - study space
 - media resources

Check only your first choice in questions 5-11.

5. My ideal reading environment:
 - is completely private
 - has other people visible but not close
 - is public but not noisy
6. My preferred reading space is:
 - an enclosed study room
 - a semi-enclosed study carrel
 - a large table
 - a lounge chair
7. I expect my students to use the library in groups:
 - much of the time
 - occasionally
 - infrequently
 - never

over

8. I expect my students to use the library for individual study:

- much of the time
- occasionally
- infrequently
- never

9. I expect to bring my classes of students to the library:

- much of the time
- occasionally
- infrequently
- never

10. I expect students to receive formal instruction in the library

- much of the time
- occasionally
- infrequently
- never

11. My favorite campus space to see colleagues is:

- Memorial Center
- Shirk Center
- library
- Other _____

12. What positive features of the current library would you take to the new building:

13. I'd walk across campus to the new library if it had:

14. My advice to the library planners is:

My department is: Liberal Arts - sciences. College of Fine Arts
 Liberal Arts - social science School of Nursing Liberal Arts - humanities Other
 Liberal Arts - business/economics

Thank you for taking the time to complete this survey